John C. Wohlrabe, Jr., Th.D.

CAPT, CHC, USN (Retired)

4th Vice President LCMS

Great Lakes Regional Vice President LCMS

President, Concordia Historical Institute Board of Governors

Editor-in-Chief, Concordia Historical Institute Quarterly

The Rev. Dr. John C. Wohlrabe Jr. is fourth vice-president and a member of the Praesidium of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS), a position to which he was elected in 2016. He represents the church's Great Lakes Region.

Wohlrabe also serves as assistant pastor at Our Savior Evangelical Lutheran Church, Whitefish Bay, Wis.; as editor-in-chief for the Concordia Historical Institute Quarterly; as president of the Concordia Historical Institute Board of Governors; and as an adjunct instructor at Concordia University Wisconsin, Mequon, Previously, Wohlrabe served as LCMS third vice-president (2007–2010) and second vice-president (2010–2016). He also was regional chaplain for Naval District Washington (2007–2009). He retired with the rank of captain in May 2009, having served as an active duty U.S. Navy chaplain for 22 years. Prior to that, he was in the Naval Reserves and served as an enlisted sailor on active duty.

His tours of duty in the Navy included the USS John F. Kennedy (1973–1976); various Naval Reserve units (1976–1987); Naval Mobile Construction Battalion Forty (1987–1990); Naval Construction Battalion Center, Port Hueneme, Calif. (1990–1992); Naval Facility Brawdy, Wales, U.K. (1992–1995); Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. (1995–1998); USS Blue Ridge and Commander Seventh Fleet (1998–2001); Naval Air Station, Brunswick, Maine (2001–2004); and First Naval Construction Division and Naval Construction Force (2005–2007). He has received numerous military awards.

In addition, Wohlrabe served as pastor of Mount Calvary Lutheran Church, Fort Lupton, Colo. (1982–1984); guest instructor at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis (1984–1986); assistant director of Concordia Historical Institute in St. Louis (1986–1987); and pastor of Concordia Lutheran Church, Geneseo, Ill. (2009–2012).

A native of Mankato, Minn., Wohlrabe earned a bachelor's degree from Concordia College, Ann Arbor, in 1978. He also received a Master of Divinity in 1981, a Master of Sacred Theology in 1982 and a Doctor of Theology in 1987, all from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. He has published numerous articles for theological journals and church and military publications, as well as several books, including Ministry in Missouri until 1962 (1992) and Soli Deo Gloria: Essays on C.F.W. Walther in Memory of August R. Suelflow (2000).

Wohlrabe and his wife, Julie, live in St. Francis, Wis. They have three grown children: one daughter and two sons.

The Auxiliary of Concordia Historical Institute is dedicated to assisting CHI in its mission of trumpeting the redeeming work of Christ in the life of the Lutheran church.

Auxiliary members volunteer their service in cultivating a deeper interest in Lutheran history, hosting quarterly meetings to hear special guests speak on historical topics, keeping members and friends of the Auxiliary informed of upcoming events and programs, and providing opportunities for members and friends to financially support specific projects at CHI.

Membership in the Auxiliary of Concordia Historical Institute is $15.00 annually (due at the October meeting).

Please mail your membership dues to treasurer Nancy Fassold (please make your check payable to "The Auxiliary of Concordia Historical Institute"):
