CHI MEMBERSHIP provides you with distinctive benefits while advancing the preservation and proclamation of historic touchstones of Lutheran history in North America.

An increasing number of documents, photographs and historical artifacts are in danger of being forever lost.

Your CHI membership helps not only preserve these touchstones of Lutheran history but also makes them available to more people in the church and community.

Join us today in moving Lutheran history forward—together.

BENEFITS INCLUDE:
- The CHI Quarterly journal
- Exclusive museum exhibit previews
- Discounts on CHI research and preservation services
- Historical Footnotes newsletter

804 Seminary Place
Saint Louis, MO 63105
314-505-7900
concordiahistoricalinstitute.org
BENEFITS OF CHI MEMBERSHIP

YOUR SUPPORT makes it possible for Concordia Historical Institute to retrieve and preserve the precious touchstones of God’s redemption in the life of His people.

Becoming a member of CHI also makes it possible to share these historical treasures with more people, both locally and around the world.

THE CHI COLLECTION is the largest archive of Lutheran history outside of Europe—and this collection needs to be actively managed. The Lord does not want these treasures to be buried in the backyard but joyfully shared with the world.

THE TIME IS NOW for the retrieval of historical material connected with the history of the Lutheran church. Your support makes it possible to capture and catalog primary source material before it is lost forever.

FROM DIGITIZING HISTORICAL RECORDS TO RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS CHI is committed to sharing more history with more people in increasingly effective ways. Join us in this important effort today.

Concordia Historical Institute’s research and reference staff is dedicated to helping connect you with the millions of documents, books, photographs, fine art and artifacts in the CHI collection.

Pastors, professors and missionaries from around the world further our understanding of the history of Christ’s redeeming work through the extensive holdings of the CHI collection.

YOUR SUPPORT makes it possible for Concordia Historical Institute to retrieve and preserve the precious touchstones of God’s redemption in the life of His people.

Becoming a member of CHI also makes it possible to share these historical treasures with more people, both locally and around the world.

EVERY YEAR hundreds of youth and adults rediscover the history of the Lutheran church through exhibits at the CHI museums at the LCMS International Center in Kirkwood, Missouri and at the campus of Concordia Seminary in Saint Louis, Missouri.

THE CHI COLLECTION is the largest archive of Lutheran history outside of Europe—and this collection needs to be actively managed. The Lord does not want these treasures to be buried in the backyard but joyfully shared with the world.

THE TIME IS NOW for the retrieval of historical material connected with the history of the Lutheran church. Your support makes it possible to capture and catalog primary source material before it is lost forever.

Concordia Historical Institute’s research and reference staff is dedicated to helping connect you with the millions of documents, books, photographs, fine art and artifacts in the CHI collection.

Pastors, professors and missionaries from around the world further our understanding of the history of Christ’s redeeming work through the extensive holdings of the CHI collection.

FROM DIGITIZING HISTORICAL RECORDS TO RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS CHI is committed to sharing more history with more people in increasingly effective ways. Join us in this important effort today.